Major activities affecting case closing which are not reflected above, and matters pending, date of hearing or sale, and other action:

The case trustee has not made a determination regarding assets in this case. Debtor scheduled a potential fraud claim in the amount of $300,000 based on knowing and material misstatements made in connection with Debtor's purchase of the business. Trustee has requested documents and information to assist with evaluation of this potential claim. Debtor also scheduled certain old accounts receivable that remain unpaid. Trustee will pursue possible collection of the receivables.
